1. It is the mind of the vestry to ask for donations for the cut through road. A re-design took place The city is reviewing and the contractor is rebidding.
2. A discussion about getting a young priest with a family took place. Fr. Rob Hartley will mentor the new priest.
3. We will have a fall retreat led by Fr. Rob Hartley titled "Godly Sexuality, Holy Marriages, and Healthy Families."
4. Patrick Darnell is doing a Lenten study series with our young people. Hopefully he will continue to work with the teens and young adults after that.
5. Vestry people need to use their Shepherding List and seek feedback from the congregation.
6. Vision, goals and plans for 2018 and beyond. The big issues are the cut-through, active shooter security and finding a young curate who can be groomed for becoming our new rector.
7. Jason thinks we try to do too much instead of focusing on a few things and doing it right. Fr. Rob will take that under advisement in planning in the future.
8. Fr. Rob stated that he has had a great year with pastoral care. Interpersonally, people are getting along better than in the past.
9. Mike suggested sending out letters or post cards right away to new visitors and to people who have not been in church. Dianne stated that the card she received from Betty Croy meant a great deal to her after her first visit.
10. Audit - Mike Fekula and Jennifer Dorn are going to be working to make this happen.
11. We need to establish a new budget for 2018.
12. The Vestry will meet on the third Sunday of each month.
13. Darren will check on a new TV for the Teen Room.

18. New Vestry members will be commissioned March 4th.
19. The meeting was adjourned.
